

January 2008 MoneyMinute – Long-Term Perspective, and It's Time to Update Your Net-Worth Statement

By Julie Schatz, CFP®

Al Frank Asset Management, one of our favorite individual stock managers, wrote an article titled, "The Long-Term Perspective," which we think worthy to distribute to everyone. With the market showing a good deal of volatility, this article will help put the current situation into perspective. Remember, as long-term investors, we like volatility. Most people are just more comfortable when the market is volatile on the positive side rather than the negative side.

Now is the time to update your Net Worth with the information from your Dec. 31, 2007, statements. Check out the "Net Worth & Goal Setting" spreadsheet attached.

The articles page on our website covers planning issues from real estate to long-term care, from investment risk to college funding, and more. See the rest at: <http://www.feesonly.com/Articles.html>.

Investor's Capital Management, LLC provides financial planning and manages investment assets so that clients can relax and stop worrying about it. Many of our clients are self-directed investors, and we enjoy helping them become more successful by following our professionally designed and monitored portfolios. Our professional services are cost-efficient, and it's rare when a client doesn't make or save more than it costs. As independent financial planners, we have a fiduciary responsibility to our clients to always put their best interests first. This may seem obvious to you, but in fact it is all too rare in the financial services area.

We are fee-only financial planners. A client's fee is the only payment we receive so that we work solely in their best interests. We do not take product commissions, nor do we gain from any portfolio activity. No sales pressure - ever!

OUR MISSION:

Giving clients the clarity and confidence they need to make consistently sound choices. If we may be of assistance in any way during the weeks and months ahead, please call or email. Check out our financial planning services: <http://www.feesonly.com>.
